Projects posted require bids to be for the totality of the project and not on an hourly basis or some kind of abnormal bid. Neither party can request otherwise. The only exception to this is where the buyer has posted a featured project. Placing a low bid to win a contract with the view to force a renegotiation is expressly forbidden. Your account will be terminated and moneys will be forfeited. Expect your details to be circulated.

Featured Projects

Posting a featured project provides among other significant benefits no fees payable by the provider. Featured projects are designed primarily to benefit the small to medium sized project. The no fee bid limit for consultants on featured projects is $2,000. Higher bids may of course be made, but the provider should allow for the 6% fee on any amount over $2000. The additional fee will be charged to your account on bid acceptance. Please ensure your account has sufficient funds to cover all fees.
